

REPUBLICANS TO BACK J. Q. EATON

Local Delegates to State Convention Will Support Him.

Memphis has a new candidate for the nomination for governor of Tennessee in the person of John Q. Eaton, well-known young business man. Mr. Eaton was unanimously endorsed at a caucus of Republican delegates to the state convention held late Tuesday night. The meeting was attended by a number of members of the new county committee headed by C. B. Allen. After the meeting it was announced that the Republicans were more determined than ever to go to Chattanooga April 14, demanding recognition as members of a white man's party in the South, and for the elimination of the negro from the party. It was also announced that those who are concerned with the allied themselves with the wing led locally by C. A. Price and C. B. Allen.

That wing includes some hundreds of more influential persons of the city, and they have joined in the movement for a white man's party which seems to be spreading throughout the South. The movement is being organized in Texas and Oklahoma, and even in Mississippi there are prospects of delegations to the national convention. The delegation also voted to support E. Barbour, the member of the credentials committee for the Tenth district and Mrs. C. B. Allen, as members of the resolutions committee. It was argued that as the Republican delegation from this district to the state convention in 1916 wrote the woman's suffrage plank included in the Republican platform that year, that the woman should be accorded full representation in the first state convention which they will attend as accredited delegates. The majority of the delegates were present at the caucus, but not more than half can attend the state convention. The caucus was held primarily so that all the delegates might have a voice in selection of committee members.

The Price-Allen delegation will be opposed at Chattanooga by two others from Shelby county, one headed by G. Tom Taylor, the other composed solely of negroes, led by Bob Church. J. Q. Eaton has been named to present the cause of the delegation to the state committee or to the convention itself when the temporary roll is made up.

The Head

COVINGTON, Tenn.—J. R. Ash, 53, died at his home in Covington Tuesday morning. He was buried at Munford cemetery Wednesday. Deceased is survived by a wife and one daughter.

CORINTH, Miss.—Thomas Newcomb, for almost 40 years a resident of Corinth, died at his home here Tuesday from apoplexy. Thirty-eight years ago he came to Corinth, Tenn., where he had been engaged in a successful tanning business for a number of years. Immediately after coming here he engaged in the saddlery and harness business, which he conducted successfully for 20 years before he finally retired from active business. He was a member of a very noted family. Another brother, Henry Newcomb, of Boston, and Simon Newcomb, one of the most noted astronomers of the past century, who was well known, died here about 16 years ago.

He is survived by his widow who is 75 years of age; one sister, Mrs. Harriet Bryant, of Boston; and one brother, John Newcomb, of Boston. Of the children whose homes are away from here are four sons—J. H. Newcomb, of Duluth, Minn.; S. J. Newcomb, of Augusta, Ga.; W. H. Newcomb, of Clifton, Tenn.; J. W. Newcomb, of Ardmore, Okla.—and one daughter, Mrs. Bailey Shumpton, of West Point, Miss. The children who are here are Mrs. J. E. East, Mrs. H. M. McAnis, Mrs. Jane Bryant and Miss Corneal Newcomb. All the relations have been notified and the date of the funeral pending the receipt of information from them.

HUNTSVILLE, Ala.—Miss Anne W. Bannister, daughter of the late Dr. J. M. Bannister, for half a century rector of the Church of Nativity, died in Lynchburg, Va., on Saturday. Her body was brought to Huntsville Monday afternoon and buried in Maple Hill cemetery. Miss Bannister left Huntsville when her father died about a dozen years ago and had been back here only once since that time.

HUNTSVILLE, Ala.—Mrs. Louise Bass Ormond, wife of Frank Ormond, prominent young banker of Selma, died during the latter part of last week in El Paso, Tex., after an illness of several months, and her body was brought to Huntsville for burial. She was formerly Miss Louise Bass of Madison county. Her husband and little son survive her.

DYERSBURG, Tenn.—Joe Tatum, of Alamo, died at a local hospital here Sunday night. He was a prominent business man and took an active part in the business life of his own. He was a member of the Christian church. Funeral services were conducted by the Rev. E. S. Baker, pastor of the Christian church here, with burial at Alamo.

CARPENTERS STRIKE

MANCHESTER, N. H., April 7.—A strike of 600 union carpenters tied up building operations here today. The men walked out in accordance with a vote taken last night when the master builders' compromise offer of 85 cents an hour was rejected. The carpenters demand $1 an hour.

PINE BLUFF LEGION TO BUILD OWN HOME

PINE BLUFF, Ark., April 7. (Sp.)—At a meeting of Allen Hester post No. 32, American Legion, plans were discussed for building a permanent home for the post in this city. It was also announced that the first physical plant exhibition planned by this post would begin here April 16.

OSCAR UNDERWOOD OPENS CAMPAIGN AT HUNTSVILLE

HUNTSVILLE, Ala., April 7. (Sp.)—Senator Oscar W. Underwood, who came to Alabama Monday to push his own campaign for re-election to the senate, made three speeches in Huntsville Friday. His main speech, in which he set forth the principles on which he is making his race for re-election, was delivered at the Madison county courthouse, where a crowd of nearly three hours a crowd that taxed the capacity of the courtroom heard him. Later he was driven to the Bradley school at Merrimack, where he spoke informally to the pupils, and at night he was a guest of honor at a dinner given by the Rotary club. He addressed the Rotarians in formally and made no reference to politics. Senator Underwood departed for Albany Tuesday night.

Old Men Get "Young Ideas," Quit Hospital And All Go To Work

CINCINNATI, O., April 7.—The Cincinnati infirmary bids fair to become a manhood institution, for the old men are becoming imbued with "young ideas," and are stepping forth into well-paid jobs. "The industrial world and old men have awakened to the truth that they can and should combine successfully to the wellbeing of both," one large employer said. "It is a new idea and it is working out."

Many of the women of the infirmary likewise have departed and found employment. In all the infirmary has lost more than 200 men and women in the past few months.

MARRIAGES

VICKSBURG, Miss.—St. Paul's Catholic church this morning was the scene of a brilliant nuptial mass, when Miss Evelyn Louis Miller, daughter of City Commissioner and Mrs. W. H. Miller, became the bride of Robert Frederick Evans, a prominent lumberman of this city. Rev. Father Prendergast officiated. The attendants were Miss Edith Hall of Memphis, cousin of the bride, maid of honor; Miss Bernadette, sister of the bride, and Miss Genevieve Evans, sister of the bridegroom, bridesmaids; Harry Evans, best man; John Bellan and Richard Carter, groomsmen; Dixie Tharp and Marguerite Brunini were flower girls and Master Dan Keefe, ringbearer. A reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, after which Mr. and Mrs. Evans left for Florida where they will spend their honeymoon.

PINE BLUFF, Ark.—G. A. Chambers, of Mansfield, La., and Miss Ernie Anderson, of Millville, Ark., were married here Tuesday by County Judge R. H. Williams.

HICKMAN, Ky.—Miss Annie Johnson, of Hickman and W. W. Jackson, formerly of this city, were married at Forrest City, Ark.

HICKMAN, Ky.—Miss Elizabeth S. Pierce, of Florence, Tenn., and Samuel B. Roberson, of Dyer, Tenn., were quietly married here at the courthouse. Mr. Roberson is a farmer of the Dyer section.

Five Women Plea For Their Freedom

Five more women added their names to the list of discontented wives, when a quintet of suits for divorce was filed in circuit court Wednesday. Unfaithfulness, abandonment, desertion, non-support and cruel and inhuman treatment were the grounds alleged in the bills.

Attorney L. H. Graves filed for four of the plaintiffs, while Attorney James N. Lewis represented the fifth. Following are the suits and grounds:

Kate Grehan Aureforth vs. Charles Henry Aureforth, abandonment and statutory offense; Stella McEachran Ogilvie vs. Hugh Ogilvie, abandonment and failure to provide; Estelle Thomas vs. John Thomas, desertion and failure to provide; Susan Morton vs. Harry S. Morton, desertion and statutory offense; Mrs. J. B. Johnson vs. J. B. Johnson, cruel and inhuman treatment and statutory offense.

Mrs. Ogilvie further sued for alimony of $28.05, to be paid in monthly installments of $25. She alleged that her husband had "borrowed" $488 from her, which he had failed to return.

SUES FOR $3,000.

Declaring that a street car on which he was a passenger had been started before he could alight from the step, B. P. Pettis filed suit in circuit court Wednesday against T. H. Tutwiler and Memphis receivers of the Memphis Street Railway company. He asked $3,000 damages.

HOXIE PICKS CITY "DADS."

HOXIE, Ark., April 7. (Sp.)—At the municipal election held here yesterday the following named citizens were elected: Mayor, Isaac Ebbert; recorder, C. A. Bassett; Aldermen, George W. Moore, Eugene Turner, Emmet Morris, Fred Coffeen and T. S. Blackwell. One hundred and eighty-one votes were cast.

URGENT OPERATION OF OCEAN VESSELS

Appeal has been forwarded to Washington by the foreign trade committee of the Memphis Chamber of Commerce, urging that the shipping board continue operation of ocean vessels. Telegrams and resolutions have been sent to Admiral Benson, chairman of the shipping board, and W. H. Hayley, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, urging that all manufacturers and exporters in the city send telegrams to Washington requesting that the board continue its operations.

Appeals from Memphis are being forwarded to Washington in response to advice received from the national capital that influences that endanger operation of shipping board vessels were active. Memphis shippers seek to bat all sales of shipping board vessels stopped.

If the shipping board should cease activity, plans in the Middle West and South for establishment of lower freight rates in connection with government vessels would be stopped.

Johnson Delegates Lose In New York

NEW YORK, April 7.—New York state's "big four" untruncated delegation to the Republican national convention, rolled over the position of former State Senator William M. Bennett, elected to the presidential candidacy.

With only 128 electoral districts out of the 2,211 in the city, Bennett's vote for the "big four" was 128.

Nathan I. Miller, 30,034, Senator James W. Wadsworth, Jr., 25,386, Senator William C. Cullen, 23,001, and William Boyce Thompson, 68,104, Bennett's vote was 22,561.

The organization men also defeated two candidates pledged to Herbert Hoover in the 17th congressional district in Manhattan by a ratio of about two and one-half to one.

There were no contests among the Democrats and the party vote was proportionately smaller than that cast for the Republicans. Women turned out in large numbers and proved active workers, particularly as watchers after the closing of the polls.

It was the city's first "dry" primary, and political leaders and police officials declared it was the most orderly ever held here. The magistrate's courts remained open until 3 o'clock last night and not a single arrest in connection with the primary was brought before them.

C. B. STOVALL JOINS NICKEL PLATE STAFF

C. B. Stovall has resigned as chief clerk in the commercial agent's office of the Illinois Central railroad, to become traffic representative of the Nickel Plate railroad. Effective April 15, Mr. Stovall's appointment has just been announced by W. S. Sumner, district traffic agent for the Nickel Plate at Memphis.

Mr. Stovall has been connected with the Illinois Central for about 10 years, and is very popular in railroad circles here. The magistrate's courts remained open until 3 o'clock last night and not a single arrest in connection with the primary was brought before them.

MISSOURI PACIFIC ANNOUNCES CHANGES

Several promotions in the traffic department of the Missouri Pacific railroad have been announced by C. Bourne, Jr., assistant general freight agent. Mike Lamson, who left the Frisco railroad March 1 to become chief clerk in the assistant general freight agent's office, has been made soliciting freight agent. L. H. Nance will succeed Mr. Lamson as chief clerk, having been assistant from rate clerk.

C. L. Howson, who was soliciting freight agent, now becomes traveling freight agent.

T. O. Sims, formerly with the Southern railway, has been appointed rate clerk.
